The Conservative Convention of the city of Richmond assembled at the Exchange Hotel yesterday afternoon at 31 o'clock, and was called to order by General Bradley T. Johnson, superintendent of the City Committee. By instruction of General Johnson, Mr. William H. Wade, the secretary of the committee, called the list of delegates by wards. Nearly all who had been chosen at the ward meetings on Thursday night re-

TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION. Mr. H. D. Danforth moved that Mr. Thomas W. McCance be called to the chair as temporary president of the Convention.

Agreed to. Messrs. Oald and Maccubbin escorted Mr.

McCance to the chair. Mr. W. H. Wade and the representatives of the press present were requested to act as temporary secretaries.

Mr. H. D. Danforth moved that a committee, consisting of one from each ward, be appointed on permanent organization. Agreed to, and the chair appointed the following gentlemen: Messrs. Robert Ould, of Madison Ward;

George A. Ainslie, of Marshall Ward; A. G. Babcock, of Jefferson Ward; H. D. Danforth, of Monroe Ward; W. F. Drinkard, of Jackson Ward; and A. Calder, of Clay Ward. The committee retired, and after a brief absence reported the following gentlemen as the officers of the Convention for PERMANENT ORGANIZATION: For President: Thomas W. McCance. Vice-President : Colonel W. H. Paimer. Secretary : W. H. Wade.

George Watt, Jr.

The report of the committee was unani- people. Mr. McCance said that every delegate must know the object of the Convention, and the sooner the business is done the better for all parties-especially for a number of anxious gentlemen who were present. Mr. H. G. Cannon moved that the committee on permanent organization retire and prepare rules for the government of the Convention. Agreed to, and the committee again retired.

VISITORS REQUESTED TO RETIRE. Mr. Henry Hudnall moved that all gentlemen other than the members of the press, officers, and invited guests be requested to retire from the room during the session of the Convention.

Messrs. C. M. Wallace and William S. White opposed the motion. The question being taken, the Chair declared that the ayes appeared to have it. Mr. Wallace called for a division.

The Chair, being unable to make the count, instructed the secretary to take the vote by ayes and noes. Mr. George A. Ainslie's name had been called, when the Committee on Permanent Organization returned to the Convention and presented the following report, which was adopted: 1. The rules of the House of Delegates, so far as applicable, shall prevail.

2. No person shall be renominated more than once. 3. The doors of the ball shall be closed upon all except the members of the Convention, the officers of the meeting, and the city and ward superintendents. 4. No speech in the Convention shall exceed five minutes. The room was now cleared of all specta-

NOMINATIONS MADE. Mr. Cannon inquired what was to be the order in which nominations were to be The Chair: Beginning with the office of Mayor.

Mr. Cannon then said that he had the honor on this occasion to present the name of the Hon. A. M. Keiley, the present incumbent. [Applause.] The speaker then proceeded to pay a high tribute to Mr. Keiley and to say that in his opinion he is more entitled to the nomination than any other gen-

Mr. Allen seconded the nomination. Mr. C. M. Wallace said that he believed Lacy, Molloy, Briggs, Maccubbin, Poindexhe would be carrying out the wishes of a ter, Phillips, Cree, Ward, Cannon, Drinkard, majority of the citizens of Monroe Ward Epps, Griffin, and Wingfield-19. when he placed in nomination General Peyton Wise. [Applause.] He declared that he believed in that ward if the two gentlemen were put side by side General Wise would beat him (Mr. Keiley) two to one.

He believed that if Mr. Keiley's name was put at the head of the ticket he would be defeated. Mr. William S. White, of Monroe Ward, said that he took issue with Mr. Wallace. He did not believe that the majority of the voters of Monroe Ward were in favor of Powell, Manson, McGovern, Brannon, Han-General Wise. He cordially seconded the nomination made by Mr. Cannon. The Chair directed the secretary to call the roll alphabetically. A motion to call the roll by wards was made and adopted. The roll being called, the vote resulted as

Mr. Scott's name was dropped. Mr. Briggs renominated Mr. Scott. At this point Mr. Drinkard said that all this difficulty could be ended by the Convention if they would impose the office upon Mr. George D. Wise. He had discharged its duties without fear or favor, and he hoped to make the nomination unanimous. Mr. Wise appeared before the Convention, and was allowed to explain his position. He said that he had announced in the public prints that he was not a candidate for the office, and he thought it would not be deing justice to his young friends to allow Sergeant-at-Arms : B. T. August and his name to be used. He had rather be right than hold the highest office in the gift of the
